AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1799,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to encourage the Trade into the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient Mode of performing Quarantine, and for reducing the Duty granted by an Act of the last Session on Goods, the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar," it is declared to be expedient to permit Goods and Merchandize to be imported from the Levant, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, without having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Ports or Places mentioned in an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas." And it is enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to grant Licence and Permission for the Importation into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, coming from the Levant Seas, without clean Bills of Health, without such Goods and Merchandizes having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Places mentioned in the said recited Act; and that all such Goods and Merchandizes shall and may be admitted to an Entry in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions, with respect to opening and airing such Goods and Merchandizes previous to the landing thereof, and to the Performance of Quarantine by the Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported, as His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall by any Order or Orders to be issued as aforesaid, make, prescribe, or direct; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; And whereas His Majesty has been pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-fifth of September last, to direct, That all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandize, which were then arrived, or should thereafter arrive, from the Levant, at any Port or Place of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, without clean Bills of Health, and without having performed Quarantine in any of the Ports of the Mediterranean mentioned in the above recited Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second; and all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever, liable to Quarantine, and not being furnished with clean Bills of Health, from whatever Port or Place the same should come, should (until further Order) perform their Quarantine for the Term mentioned in the said Order in Standgate Creek, and no where else: His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, is hereby pleased to order, that the following provisional Regulations be (until further Order) observed with respect to the due Performance of Quarantine, by all such Ships and the Crews, or other Persons belonging to or on board the said Ships; and with respect to the unpacking, opening, and airing of all the Goods of different Descriptions, imported in Ships arriving without clean Bills of Health.

That as soon as any such Ship shall arrive, the Master and Mate shall immediately proceed in their own Boat (which Boat shall be attended by a Guard Boat) to certain Huts or Tents to be erected on the Beach, for the Purpose of undergoing the necessary Examinations; and in addition to the usual printed Quarantine Questions, the Superintendent or Superintendants of Quarantine in Standgate Creek shall make the following Enquiries, which shall be answered separately by the Master and Mate. viz.

- 1st, Was the Cargo taken in at more than One Port; and if so, declare what Part was taken in at each Place?
- 2d, Were there any Letters, Parcels, or other Articles delivered to, or received from any Ship or Vessel met with on the Passage, and what were such Letters, Parcels, or other Articles, respectively?

3d, Does the Whole of the Crew and Passengers consist of the same Individuals that were on board at the Time or Times of Departure from the Port or Ports of Loading respectively; and if any Change or Alteration has taken place, point out the same, and the Circumstances which occasioned it?

4th, Has any of the Crew, Passengers, or any other Person whatsoever, died on board the Ship during the Voyage, or been sick or ill of any Disorder whatsoever.

That the Answers of the Master and Mates respectively be taken down in Writing, and the Bills of Health, Manifests of the Cargo, and all Letters and Packets, be then and there delivered to the Superintendent or Superintendents of Quarantine, and deposited in a Vessel with Vinegar, and from thence taken out with a Pair of Tongs, and dried in the Smoaking Case: and all Packets containing Inclosures shall be previously slit on the Sides by the Master or Mate, so as to admit of their being completely soaked and fumigated, and shall remain in the Smoaking Case from Twelve to Twenty Hours, at the Discretion of the Superintendent or Superintendents; and if amongst the Parcels there are any that contain more than Papers, such Parcels shall be sent to the Hulks, or Lazarets, and be subjected to the same Quarantine as the Cargo.

That after such Examinations shall be completed, the Master and Mate of the Ship or Vessel shall return on board, and shall become subject to Quarantine until further Order.

That in case it shall appear from the above Examinations, and the Report made to the Commissioners of the Customs by the Superintendent or Superintendents of Quarantine and the Medical Assistants, and from the Bills of Health, and the Manifest of the Cargo, that there is no Reason to apprehend Danger of Infection, the Pilots who may have been taken on board to conduct the Ship from the Downs (or elsewhere) to Standgate Creek, shall be permitted to go on board the Ship appointed for an Hospital Ship, or to go on Shore to a Hut or Tent constructed on the Beach, and provided with Necessaries for their Reception, and shall there perform a Quarantine of Four Days; at the Expiration of which the said Pilots, if they continue free from Appearance of Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: provided always, that during this Performance of Quarantine the said Pilots shall not have Communication with any other Persons; in Default of which such Pilots shall be detained under Quarantine until further Order.

That after the Pilots shall have been permitted to quit the Ships, all the Boats belonging to such Ships shall be hoisted out, and delivered into the Custody of the Superintendent or Superintendents of Quarantine, who shall cause the said Boats to be moored at a Distance from the Ship; and unless from Circumstances of absolute Necessity, the said Boats shall not be returned until the Ships and Crews are admitted to Pratique.

That not any Thing whatever be delivered from on board the Ships without an Order from the Superintendent or Superintendents.

That nothing, however insusceptible of Infection, be conveyed from one Ship to another, nor any personal Intercourse permitted from Ship to Ship.

That the Guards who may be placed on board a Ship under Quarantine do accompany, when required, the Lighters and the Boats belonging to such Ship, to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to the Lazaret.

That they do take care, that no Remnants of Cotton, or other Articles susceptible of Infection, remain in the Lighters, but do collect and deliver the same into the Lazarets with the last Package.

That they do take care after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazarets, that the Holds and between Decks of the Ships be completely swept, and the Sweepings be burned.

That they search diligently the Lockers, Chests, &c. of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships, so that nothing remain undelivered to the Lazarets susceptible of Infection, but what is absolutely requisite for daily Use; and do see that the Chests, Clothes, and Bedding be daily opened and aired.

That they do make daily Report to the Superintendent or Superintendents and the Medical Assistants, as to the State of Health of every Person on board; and whether the Regulations of Quarantine are properly complied with.

That in case any Impediment occurs in the Execution of these Duties, Notice be immediately given to the Master of the Ship in the first Instance; and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, to the Superintendent or Superintendents of Quarantine.

That the Passengers on board all such Ships do perform their Quarantine in like Manner, and for the same Period of Time as the Crews, unless they are desirous of performing it in other Vessels to be hired at their own Expence, in which Case they shall be liable to a Quarantine of Fourteen Days, and at the Expiration thereof, if they continue free from Infection, they shall be fumigated and discharged.

That after the Pilots and the Passengers (provided the latter perform their Quarantine in a separate Vessel) have quitted the Ships in which they arrived, the Hatches of such Ships shall be opened, and the probationary Airing of the Cargo shall commence, in Manner following, that is to say;

Such a Number of Bales of the enumerated Goods as can be ranged upon the Decks of the Ships importing the same, shall be hoisted up and ripped open, so as to admit of the Contents of such Bales being handled or rummaged by the Crews, and under such Process shall remain open for Three Days, and on the Fourth Day shall be sewed up and sent to the Hulks or Lazarets in which they are to perform Quarantine, in the Long Boats belonging to the Ships, or in Lighters conducted by the Crews of the Ships, attended by a Guard Boat; and as soon as the Deck is cleared of the First Parcel of Goods, a Second Parcel shall be hoisted up and treated in the like Manner for the Space of Two Days; after which a Third Parcel in Succession shall be hoisted up and treated in the same Manner for the Space of One Day; but in case of any suspicious Circumstances arising, the probationary Airing shall be extended and prolonged as the Case may require.

That when the the probationary Airing has been completed, provided the Crews and Passengers on board continue free from any Appearance of Infection, the Superintendant or Superintendants of Quarantine shall permit the Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to be hauled alongside the Hulks or Lazarets, into which the Rest of the enumerated Goods of every Description, and the non-enumerated Goods which may be packed in Packages susceptible of Infection, shall be deposited, to be there opened and aired for the Time hereinafter expressed; and the Ships, together with the non-enumerated Goods which may be packed in Packages not susceptible of Infection shall depart from the Hulks or Lazarets to a proper Distance, and shall there commence a Quarantine of Twenty Days, at the Expiration of which (if all the Persons on board continue free from Appearance of Infection) the Ships shall be fumigated and discharged.

That no more than One Ship, Boat, or Vessel of any Kind shall be permitted to be alongside the Hulks or Lazarets at the same Time.

That the following Goods be opened, unpacked, and aired on board the Hulks or Lazarets (unless His Majesty shall, by His Order in Council, think fit to direct otherwise) for the Space of Forty Days, viz.

Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown, or wrought; Linen, Cotton Wool, Cotton Yarn, or manufactured; Wool, raw, or anywise wrought; Feathers, Grogram, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, Carmania Wool, Carpets, Camblets, Burdets, or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton; Kid Skins, and Skins in the Wool or Hair; Spunges, Wine and Oil in Chests; Thread Stockings; Straw Hats and Brushes, Matting, and Artificial Flowers.

That all non-enumerated Goods, except such as are packed in Wood, Glass, or Metal, shall be opened and aired on board the Hulks or Lazarets for the Space of Twenty Days, and that all non-enumerated Goods, stowed loose, or packed in Wood, Glass, or Metal, shall be opened and aired on board the Ships in which they arrive, and shall continue under Quarantine until the Ships are discharged.

That when the Goods are received on board the Hulks or Lazarets, care be taken to place them separately from Goods previously under Quarantine; and that the non-enumerated Goods be stowed apart from the enumerated Goods of the same Cargoes.

That the enumerated Goods be stowed in such Manner as to admit of complete Perflation and Change of Air, and the Bales to have a Seam ripped open all down one Side, and the Porters to thrust in their naked Hands and Arms for Twenty Days successively; after which the Bales to be sewed up and turned over, and the other Side unripped and managed in the same Manner for the Space of Twenty Days more, which shall complete the Quarantine.

That a small Vessel, provided with One or more Assistants, and with proper Necessaries for the Reception of Sick Persons, be stationed in Standgate Creek: that the Northernmost Corner of Chetney-Hill, a Space of Ground of One Hundred and Fifty Feet, be immediately inclosed and fenced, so as to admit of being securely guarded to prevent Escape or Communication; and that Three small Cabins of Wood, not less than Twenty Feet distant from each other, about Twelve or Fifteen Feet square, calculated to hold One Person each, and furnished with proper Necessaries, be erected on Shore near the Beach, with a Door on each of the Four Sides, so that the Sick Person may always be approached on the Windward Side by those who administer Nourishment and Relief to them.

That the Superintendants, and no other Persons, shall supply Persons and Ships in Quarantine with Provisions and other Necessaries; and all Communication to be carried on by Daylight.

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General, and the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Yesterday was celebrated at the Imperial Residence of Gatschina the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Archduke Joseph Palatine of Hungary with Her Imperial Highness the Great Duchess Alexandrina. The Marriage Ceremony was first performed after the Rites of the Greek Church, and afterwards by the Archbishop of Cracow, who attended His Royal Highness for that Purpose. In the Evening there was a grand Ball at Court, and magnificent Illuminations.

Whitehall, December 3.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are in any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majeſty's Dominions, to exerciſe or teach the ſaid Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any ſuch Foreign Country, exerciſing any of the ſaid Trades, ſhall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambaſſador, Miniſter, or Conſul of Great Britain, in the Country where ſuch Artificers ſhall be, or by any Perſon authoriſed by ſuch Ambaſſador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; ſuch Perſons ſhall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Adminiſtrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Deſcent, Deſiſe, or Purchase, and ſhall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Maſteſty's Uſe, and ſhall be deemed Alien, and out of His Maſteſty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Juſtice of Peace, that any Perſon is endeavouring to ſeducer any ſuch Artificer, or that any ſuch Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Maſteſty's Dominions, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch Juſtice may ſend his Warrant to bring the Perſon complained of before him, or before ſome other Juſtice; and if it ſhall appear by the Oath of One Witneſs, or by Confeſſion, that he was guilty of any of the ſaid Offences, ſuch Juſtice may bind him to appear at the next Aſſizes or Quarter Sessions: And if ſuch Perſon ſhall reſuſe to give Security, the Juſtice may commit him to Gaol till the next Aſſizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he ſhall be delivered by due Courſe of Law. And if any ſuch Artificer ſhall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any ſuch Promiſe, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, he ſhall give ſuch Security to the King not to depart out of His Maſteſty's Dominions, as ſuch Court ſhall think reaſonable, and ſhall be imprifoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences ſhall be committed in Scotland, the ſame ſhall be proſecuted in the Court of Juſticiary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

If any Perſon ſhall contract with, or endeavour to ſeducer any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Braſs, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and ſhall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Weſtmiſter, or by Indictment at the Aſſizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein ſuch Offence ſhall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Juſticiary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if ſuch Offence be committed in Ireland; the Perſon ſo convicted ſhall, for every Artificer contracted with or ſeducer, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and ſhall ſuffer Imprifonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein ſuch Offender ſhall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in caſe of a ſubſequent Offence of the ſame Kind, the Perſons ſo again offending ſhall forfeit, for every Perſon contracted with or ſeducer, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and ſhall ſuffer Imprifonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein ſuch Offender ſhall be convicted, for Two Years, and until ſuch Forfeiture be paid.

If any Perſon in Great Britain or Ireland ſhall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to ſome Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to ſome other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any ſuch Tools or Utenſils as are commonly uſed in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finiſhing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of ſuch Tools, he ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit all ſuch Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Weſtmiſter, or in the Court of Seſſion in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin reſpectively, wherein no Eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed.

It ſhall be lawful for any Officer of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to ſeize and ſecure, in ſome of His Maſteſty's Warehouſes, all ſuch Tools or Utenſils prohibited to be exported, as ſuch Officer ſhall find on board any Veſſel not bound directly to ſome Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to ſome other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools ſo ſeized ſhall, after Condemnation, be publicly ſold to the beſt Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce ſhall be to the Uſe of His Maſteſty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who ſhall ſeize and ſecure the ſame.

If the Captain of any Veſſel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the ſaid Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Veſſel, he ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Perſons exporting the Tools; and, if the Veſſel belongs to His Maſteſty, the Captain ſhall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but ſhall alſo forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Maſteſty.

If any Officer of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly ſuffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or ſign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the ſaid Tools, or knowingly ſuffer the ſame to be done, he ſhall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforeſaid, and alſo forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Maſteſty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures ſhall be applied to the Uſe of His Maſteſty, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of the Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His preſent Maſteſty.

BY theſe Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Perſons packing or putting on board any Veſſel, not bound directly for ſome Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Preſs, Paper, Utenſil, or Implement whatſoever, uſed in or proper for the working or finiſhing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part
